“ Another bright light in our lives has been darkened with the passing of MR. D. MR. D and the Dundon Family will always be a big part of our family and will remain there in our hearts forever.

From fishing trips to Canada to road trips to Notre Dame games (Go Irish) in an old beat-up camper truck Tim and I would drive for 18hrs straight while the "old guys" would party hardy in the back, to special gatherings at our house was a big part of what made growing up with people like the Dundon family so special.

The light in our lives will shine bright again in time with many fond memories of those good times until we are all together again.

MR. D and the Dundon family will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved them.

RIP MR. D
